

MOVIE HIGHLIGHTS

Scenes from the movie were filmed in Snowdonia, Wales. Read about its legendary beauty on page 44-49.

King Arthur – Legend Of The Sword

When a young Arthur's father is murdered, his uncle, Vortigern, seizes control of the crown. Robbed of his birthright, Arthur is forced to live in the back alleys without knowing his true heritage. When fate leads him to the mysterious and magical sword, Excalibur, Arthur has no choice but to embrace his true legacy to become the legendary ruler he was meant to be. However, he must first harness Excalibur's powers and lead a rebellion to dethrone his tyrannical uncle.

Alien: Covenant

In 2104, the colonisation ship Covenant is bound for a remote planet when a stellar neutron bursts, damaging the ship and forcing it to take shelter in a nearby planet to carry out repair works. Whilst there, the crew meets David, a synthetic android, the only survivor of the doomed Prometheus expedition. The planet soon becomes dangerous with a hostile alien life-form forcing the crew to fight for their survival and make a harrowing escape.

MALAY PROGRAMME HIGHLIGHTS

Read the story of Sybil Kathigasu, Malaysian icon on pages 70-71.

Apa Dosaku: The Sybil Kathigasu Story

This movie is based on the real life story of Sybil Kathigasu, who was a nurse during the Japanese occupation of Malaya in World War Two. Just days before Japanese troops marched into Perak's capital of Ipoh, Kathigasu and her family fled to nearby Papan, where she helped her husband, Dr AC Kathigasu, provide medical services and food to resistance forces until the couple was arrested. Despite being interrogated and tortured, Sybil persisted until Malaya was liberated, earning her Britain's George Medal, the highest award for bravery.

Kami Anak Malaysia

In conjunction with Malaysia Day on 16 September, this documentary tells of what it means to be Malaysian. Told and narrated by three Malaysians in their twenties from different walks of life, Luqman of Ola Bola fame, Alina of Chinese-Malay parentage and Dr. Rahim of Indian-Chinese parentage, they use their own life stories as backdrops to discuss their unique culture and heritage and what makes them proud to be Malaysian.

AUDIO HIGHLIGHTS

DJ Khaled – Grateful

DJ Khaled's new studio album boasts big names and big tunes. A whopping 23 tracks can be found on this album, which credits his eight-month-old son, Asahd, as executive producer. The track list shows whom he rubs shoulders with in the rap, hip-hop and R&B world, as it features the likes of Beyonce, Justin Bieber and Calvin Harris, to name a few. Grateful debuted at number one on the US Billboard 200, making it his second chart-topping album.

Roger Waters – Is This The Life We Really Want?

When the former Pink Floyd bassist and vocalist announced that he was going to work with Radiohead/Beck producer Nigel Godrich, fans knew this was the injection of new blood that Waters needed after his previous solo albums more or less repeated the musical style of The Wall. The album presents Waters' tightest and most focused songs since the mid-70s. It has a myriad of sonic references to his work with Pink Floyd, which seems to suggest that Waters is comfortable with his past and his relationship with the group, despite any creative differences.
